

Description of the studio

The objective of the studio is toapproach the design of a high degree ofcomplexity building: the combination of a university drama department with asmall scale but of varying layout experimental theatre in a rather restricted in the town centre, following the adequate design and building regulations.