

Description of the studio

The objective of the studio is to approach the design of a high degree of complexity building: the combination of a university drama department with a small scale but of varying layout experimental theatre in a rather restricted site in the town centre, following the adequate design and building regulations.